CULTURE

Persona 5's Joker, A Stage Builder And More Are Coming To Smash Bros. Ultimate Tomorrow

By Stephen Totilo Published April 16, 2019

Super Smash Bros. Ultimate's 3.0 update will be out on Wednesday and will add a lot to the game, even if you aren't buying the game's paid DLC.

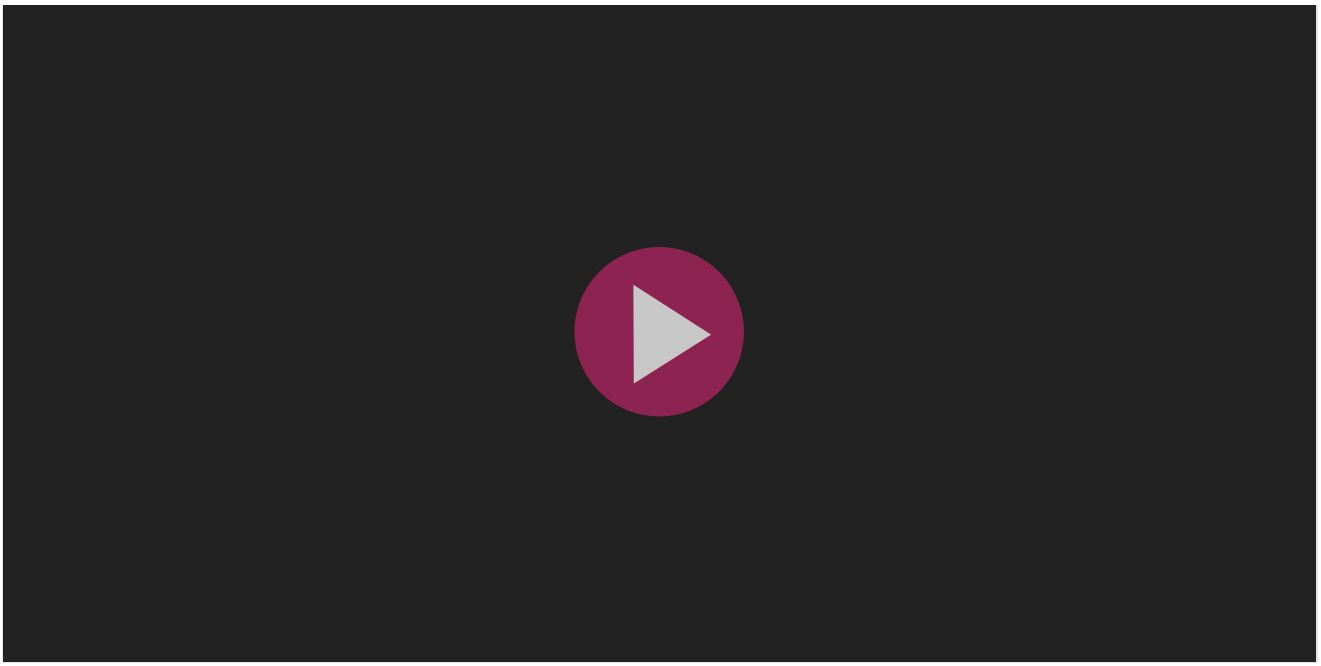
Suggested Reading

A Bunch Of Switch 2 Consoles Are Showing Up With Free Pringles And Coke

An Ode To Those Of Us Whose Switch 2s Are Arriving Late

One Of The Switch's Worst Ports Is Hugely Improved On Switch 2

Watch: GameStop Doubles Down On Crypto With Massive Bitcoin Purchase As Stores Close



Suggested Reading

A Bunch Of Switch 2 Consoles Are Showing Up With Free Pringles And Coke

An Ode To Those Of Us Whose Switch 2s Are Arriving Late

One Of The Switch's Worst Ports Is Hugely Improved On Switch 2

Those who do pay for the $5.99 add-on will be able to play as the Persona 5 character Joker and summon his persona, Arsene.

A 15-minute video from Nintendo shows the new character's moves as well as the Persona-themed Memories stage that is part of the paid offering. Nintendo is also adding 11 songs from Persona 3, 4 and 5.

RELATED CONTENT

- Everything To Know About The Magic: The Gathering x Final Fantasy Pre-Release Events
- Alien: Earth Trailer Prepares Us For 2025's Scariest Show

The game is also getting several new features tomorrow as part of the game's 3.0 update. That includes a stage-builder....

...and a new video editor....

Players will be able to view each other's videos and download stages made by other players.

It's Smash Bros., folks, so the video released for this is as chock-full of details as you could hope for.